

Parent Commissioning

Children are a blessing from God, and at Redemption Hill Church we have always rejoiced when God has added children to our families, whether through birth or adoption. However, as a church we want to do more than that. We want to celebrate the arrival of these children together in our Sunday gatherings; and when we do that, we also want to take that opportunity to remind our parents of their God-given responsibility to “bring their children up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord” (Ephesians 6:4). Our next Parent Commissioning will be Sunday, March 31st. So, for those of you who have recently experienced the blessing of a new son or daughter, and would like to participate in our next Parent Commissioning, you can get more info and register at <http://rhc.to/parcom0331>.

The Picture of Lent

For most people, spring is the time when days get longer, and winter passes and new life bursts from the ground. And like spring, Lent marries both a sense of brokenness and hope, a “bright sadness.” This paradox conveys the idea that on one hand we feel the sorrow, weight, and sadness of Christ’s suffering, death, and burial, and on the other hand we feel the great hope, light, and brightness of Christ’s victory. “Bright sadness” is the picture we carry throughout Lent, and in our “lenting,” we are tapping into the mystery of seeing Christ step into our suffering so that we might step into His. This should be a staggering and deeply comforting reality. Jesus steps into our stories and our suffering so that we might step into His. And in our “lenting,” we get to intentionally meet Jesus, whether we are in the valley or on the mountaintop. To meet Jesus there. To know Him. To know His power and glory. To know not only that Christ is identifying with us in temptation and suffering, but that we are invited to participate with Him.

God Sends His People Into the World

Benediction: 1 Kings 8:56-58

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth: Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Help me not to be scared off by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is convincing and that leads to the life you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared confess, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.
