

Conference

Great families aren't perfect – but they're authentic, well-connected, and growing in faith.

Join us Friday night, September 27th, and Saturday morning, September 28th, for a special Connected Families Conference on How to Grow a Connected Family.

Over two days, you'll learn a framework of four timeless biblical principles for building strong relationships and anchoring your family in God's grace and truth. Don't wait for the storms of life or the strong currents of cultural influence to shipwreck your family. You can become an insightful, proactive parent, despite today's frantic pace. Visit Connected Families for more information.

Admission is $10 per adult. Children 18 and under are free. Childcare will be provided for infant through 4th graders. Register and more info at <http://rhc.to/famcon19>.

Healthy Tensions in Gathered Worship

Conversations about worship often produce much more disagreement than agreement. Even though the act of worship is innate, knowing how we're to worship God isn't. Is worship an event, or all of life? Should it be planned, or spontaneous? Should it be directed to God, or one another? Join us Wednesday, August 21st, at 6:00 p.m. at The 400, for the last night of our Summer Dessert Series, as Shelby Murphy helps us navigate the number of seemingly contrasting ways to worship God when we gather together, and how our call as worshippers of God isn't just to be "balanced" in our approach to Sunday, but to become more faithful. Benediction

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth: Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Help me not to be scared off by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is convincing and that leads to the life you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared confess, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.
