

rh Foster and Adoption Care

Today is Orphan Sunday, where Christians around the world stand for children who've lost the protection and care of family. Orphan Sunday is a reminder that God's great love for the orphan should shape and transform how individuals and churches care for the fatherless. Here are a number of ways that is happening at Redemption Hill: support groups, advocacy, family gatherings, special events, and meeting needs. If you are interested in learning more about Foster and Adoption Care here at Redemption Hill, feel free to talk to Mark and Mary after the service, or email us at rhocfamily@gmail.com.

Southwood Learning Center

We are doing a Coat Drive this holiday season for the students of the Southwood Learning Center. We want to send each child home with a gift of warmth over the cold winter months. Here's how you can help: simply pick a tag off the tree in the foyer. Each tag contains the picture of a child in the Learning Center, their name, age, grade, size, and the child's favorite color. Remove the card from back of the tag to return with your purchase (please return gifts unwrapped). Keep the tag with you, and pray for this child and their family over the holidays and into the New Year. We are putting this out now so each family can reap the benefits of sales over the shopping season. We will have a box in the foyer beginning next Sunday to collect coats, and would like to have all donations in by Sunday, December 8th.

The Kid Rooms here at The 400 are in need of some TLC. Could you help us make the rooms extra special for our kids this fall? Here are some ways you can help:

1. Donate your time to help paint a room. We'd love to touch up our rooms with a fresh coat of paint. Maybe you and your community group do it together, or you and a group of friends. To sign up for a Saturday in November, go to <http://rhc.to/roomtree19>.
2. Donate a book to one of our classrooms. We need fun, engaging books for our kids. Do you and your kids have a special book you enjoy together? Consider donating a copy to one of our classrooms. A box is available on the Kids hallway where you can drop off books.

If you had have any questions, feel free to drop Emily Welch an email at emily@redemptionhill.org.

Prayers for Reflection

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth: Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Help me not to be scared off by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is convincing and that leads to the life you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared confess, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.
